Create a Positive Cold Call Culture

Technique	Cold Call
Objective	Learn how to establish a positive Cold Call culture in your classroom
Estimated Time	15 minutes
Link to Online Training	TLAC Online—Positive Cold Call Culture
Teachers	You can complete this training on your own schedule and share your final practice video with colleagues or your principal. For background, read up on this technique in TLAC 2.0 and watch this excellent video of Emily Badillo using the technique with her 4th grade reading group.
Leaders/Coaches	Teachers can complete this training as their schedule allows. Below is some sample language you can include in your email when sharing this resource.

Dear Colleagues,

I'd like to share an excellent training resource on how to ensure Cold Call is a positive experience for students in your classroom.

Simply click this link to access the TLAC Online training when your schedule allows. The training should take just 15 minutes and it allows you to record yourself practicing the technique. At the end of the training, the platform will prompt you to share your final practice. Please share your practice video with _____ and _____ — we'd love to see how you're doing!

Happy Teaching!

TLAC Online allows teachers to learn and practice techniques on their own schedules.

Learn More

TLAC Online is built for the reality of busy teachers' lives.

Each 15-minute module follows a similar design pattern:

STEP INTO A CLASSROOM

Observe the technique in action with teachers and students.

SEE A MODEL
