Prompting for Revision: A Menu of Ideas

Rule/Convention	Example Prompts/Language
Use Active Voice	<ul> <li>"Revise your sentence so that it's clear that the subject is performing the action."</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>Non-Example: "Your bicycle was damaged by him.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>Example: "He damaged your bicycle."</li> </ul>
Avoid Repetition	"Remove phrases/ideas from your response that show up more than once."
	"What's a different way we could say (insert repetitive phrase)?"
Add an Appositive(s)	"Add an appositive to the sentence you wrote about" (e.g., "Gandhi had an impact."→"Gandhi, a pacifist and important leader , had an impact.")
Add a Subordinating	"Now begin this sentence with a subordinating conjunction" (e.g., if, unless, so, after, etc.).
Conjunction	• "Try including a dependent clause" (e.g., "Until the sun sets"; "unless Peter helps" etc.)
Use Technical/College	"How can we say that like a scientist/historian/writer/A.P. scholar/5 th grader/etc.?"
Vocabulary	"What vocabulary can we incorporate from the text to make our word choice more precise?"
Combine Sentences/Ideas	"Choose two sentences that work best when they are combined."
	"How can we put these two sentences together to show how the ideas connect?"
Include Transitional	"Add a transitional phrase(s) here to make your response flow even better."
Phrases	"Start with a phrase that shows" (contrast/similarity/cause-and-effect, etc.)
Make Clear/Direct	"Revise your argument sentence to make it more direct/assertive/definite."
Assertions	"Take out words that show uncertainty" (e.g., would, should, could, may, might, not, etc.)
Use Specific Nouns	"Revise your sentence so that it includes the names of specific characters/book title/etc."
	"Replace two pronouns in your response with more specific nouns."
Add More Evidence	"Add one more piece of evidence from page X to make your argument even stronger."